Coloring allows you to explore your creativity and is very relaxing, but you can do so much more than just color on paper! The Coloring Book Craft series will take your love of coloring to a whole new level! You can create beautiful handmade coloring book crafts for yourself or for gift giving. Vintage Flowers Rag Quilt Pillow is the first book in this exciting series. This book has 56 floral designs and instructions on how to make a throw size rag quilt and envelope pillow cover. There are also instructions for transferring the designs to fabric, coloring, and embroidery. Crayon tinted and embroidered designs were very popular in America from the 1920 s until the mid-1940 s. Iron-on transfers were used, colored with crayons, heat set, and then hand embroidered. Homemakers made household items such as table linens, pillows, dish towels, and quilts. This coloring activity book will explain how to transfer the coloring book designs onto fabric, color, heat set, and then embroider or highlight the designs with ink. Embroidery is a great way to add a special touch to your coloring projects requiring only a few basic inexpensive tools and materials that you can find in any craft store. All you really need to get started is a needle, floss, embroidery hoop, and fabric. Crafters of all skill levels find embroidery one of the easiest and most addictive ways to personalize everyday objects. Using this book for craft projects is easy! Trace or scan and print the designs as many times as you wish to use for crafting or just to color. Enlarging or reducing the designs to fit your...
