Brand New Book  Print on Demand .No one is taught how to become the president of a nation; one who is elected president has to discharge his or her duties without prior orientation or boot camp training whatsoever. The same applies to the human race: we find ourselves here on this earth without opting for it, and yet we are faced with the scary realities of living on this earth whether or not we are prepared, and like it or not, here we are. The question is, how do we as humans live on this planet Earth once we are born onto it? The answer to this question has since time immemorial been a mystery that really needs to be unraveled. This book uncovers the shocking facts and revelations as to how to live life on this planet Earth. After reading this book, The naive will be enlightened. The believer will be empowered. Parents, guardians and teachers will be strengthened and equipped with knowledge to offer. And finally, the skeptic will be at rest to make informed decisions about life. My people...
