Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Tamar, daughter of King David faced what many women are dealing with today but haven't spoken about or had someone listen to their plea. Like many of us who have endured heartache, rejection, deceit, and isolation, Tamar was left desolate. Seldom do we see however that through her story someone who cried out for help only to be rejected and shamed in the end. As women of God we have a royal lineage that dates back to King David and father Abraham by the blood covenant through Jesus Christ. Sadly, we carry this same rejection and shame Tamar endured, only to be left in desolation. Well now is the time to change that desolation to deliverance, and restoration because the King of Kings Jesus Christ has come so that the purpose to which you have been called can now be fulfilled by the power of his blood. Born in Sacramento, CA to Tanya Harris, Zakiyyah Hill is 28 years old and the middle of three siblings. She is the wife of Larry Hill Sr., and mother...
