

Tales from School

By Robert L. Brielmaier

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Baron Creek High School, molded by and reflecting the character of its innovative principal, George VanderZaan, was a progressive, peaceful, moral, and (above all else) orderly school acclaimed throughout the state. Its tranquil nature is suddenly disrupted by the discovery that one of its teachers, Phillip Rigger, has recently married -- but his union is with a man. The principal s assumes that the disgraced teacher will voluntarily resign but instead soon realizes he is embroiled in a fierce struggle with a determined, implacable opponent determined to retain his position. His increasingly severe steps to rid his school of this moral pariah brings VanderZaan into conflict with the head of the local teacher s association, Danielf VanDorf, who while helping the teacher fight for his job, considers his action depraved and sinful. Compounding the principal s problem with his teacher is a distracting quarrel between the school s sole African-American student and its premier football player. Having provoked a fight he predicts could potentially prove fatal, the student next suggests a novel solution. The principal shrewdly alters the...
