Copper Canyon Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Wright shrinks back from nothing. The Village Voice Wright belongs to a school of exactly one. The New York Times Book Review Wright has found a way to wed fragments of an iconic America to a luminously strange idiom, eerie as a tin whistle. The New Yorker C.D. Wright is one of America s oddest, best, and most appealing poets. Publishers Weekly A companion to her astonishing collection of prose Cooling Time, C.D. Wright argues for poetry as a way of being and seeing, and calls it the one arena where I am not inclined to crank up the fog machine. Wright s passion for the genre is pure inspiration, and in her hands the answer to the question of poetry is poetry. From In a Word : I love the nouns of a time in a place, where a sack once was a poke and native skag was junk glass not junk and junk was just junk not smack and smack entailed eating with your mouth open, and an Egyptian one-eye was an egg, sunny side up, and a nation sack was a flannel amulet, worn only by women, to be touched only by women, especially around Memphis. Red sacks for love and green for money C.D. Wright s most recent volume, One With Others, was a National Book Award finalist. Among her many honors are the Griffin Poetry Prize and a MacArthur Fellowship. She teaches at Brown University and lives outside of Providence, Rhode Island.
